

Woman and Society

ONLY A DAD.

Only a dad with a tired face
Coming home from the daily pace,
Bringing little of gold or fame,
To show how well he has played the game.
But glad in his heart that his own rejoice
To see him come and hear his voice.

Only a dad, of a brood of four,
Of ten million more or more,
Flocking along in the daily strife,
Fearing the whips and scorns of life,
With never a whisper of pain or hate
For the sake of those who at home await.

Only a dad, neither rich nor proud,
Merely one of the surging crowd,
Failing, striving, from day to day,
Facing whatever may come his way;
Silent, whenever the harsh condemn,
And bearing it all for the love of them.

Only a dad but he gives his all
To smooth the way for his children
Doing, with courage stern and grim,
The deeds that his father did for him.
This is the line that for him I pen,
Only a dad, but the best of men.

RECEPTION AT COLLEGE

Lenoir Students Are Made Welcome to Seat of Learning.

The annual reception for new students was held at Lenoir College Thursday evening in the college auditorium and the two literary society halls. The evening began with a short program, the first number being a piano duet by two of the seniors in the piano department. Then followed a short, inspiring and instructive address by Mr. A. A. Whitener. Mr. Whitener, always an effective speaker, was at his best, and his words of instruction and advice were driven home in a most forceful manner, while his humor was spontaneous and to the point. Mr. Whitener is an honored graduate of Lenoir College.

Mr. Whitener's address was followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. K. E. Patterson, which was greatly enjoyed by the audience, especially by the old students, some of whom had the privilege of studying under her while she was a teacher in Lenoir College.

The program was followed by a delightful reception at which the Lenoir Dames, assisted by the junior class, presided. The Lenoir Dames is a comparatively new organization, but their connection with the college affairs has already added a great deal to the pleasure and benefits which the students derive from their college life.

The delightful punch which was served was enjoyed by all present, and every one agreed that this was possibly the most pleasant opening reception that the college has ever had.

MRS. JOY ENTERTAINS.

Has Her Class and Others to Meet Mrs. Rose of Hamlet.

Eight o'clock Tuesday night found about forty guests assembled at the residence of Mrs. A. K. Joy on Eighth street to attend an informal reception in honor of Mrs. Joy's class from the monthly social meeting of the Presbyterian Philathea class.

This being the annual meeting, the Philathea class went into executive session and elected officers for the ensuing year, as well as discussing plans for the future activities of the class. The officers elected were:

President—Miss Mary Hendley.
Vice-President—Miss Prue Thomason.
Secretary—Miss Jessie L. Joy.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. K. Joy.

Five dollars was donated from the class fund for the benefit of ministerial education, and the class pledged itself to furnish a cow for the Banner Elk Orphanage.

The business of the evening being disposed of the social committee, consisting of Mrs. Geo. Killian, Mrs. Joy and Miss Bertie Hatch, took charge of affairs and announced an old-fashioned spelling match as the first on the program. Rev. J. G. Garth and Rev. C. L. Crane were selected as captains, and they almost tumbled over each other in an effort to get the greater number of "schoolmarm" on their sides. Mr. A. K. Joy officiated as schoolmaster, and armed with the old blue-back speller that North Carolinians swear by, he began bombarding the lines with words. But the ladies sound him out, and a timely word was refused to break, and a timely was announced that "Miss Katherine Hardin will now give some recitations." She was called upon, and she certainly "did so" with that easy grace of manner that is one of her many attractions.

Ice cream, punch and cake were served, and a general good time was had. Mrs. Joy was reluctant to break up when the time came to drink the "straw cup" of punch before saying "good night."

The guests were: Mrs. T. M. Rose and Master Bill Rose of Hamlet, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Yoder, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Killian, Rev. C. L. Crane, Miss Frances Dixon, Miss Rosa Lee Dixon, Miss Mary Knox Henderson, Mrs. Bonbonna, Mrs. Belle Ingold, Miss Katherine Hardin, Miss Annie Killian, Miss Myrtle Lafon, Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Garth, Miss Bertie Hatch, Miss Hamilton, Miss Ruby Satterfield, Miss Mary Hendley, Miss Jessie Joy, Miss Prue Thomason, Miss Velma Bradshaw, Miss Anna Rowe, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Minnie Reece, Mrs. Grier, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. E. V. Morton, Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Mattie Shell, Master Geo. Killian.

Mrs. Willis Bagby, who has been visiting her father, Mr. L. Shuford, is visiting Mrs. J. M. Holland in Gastonia.

Mrs. Yoder Entertains.
Mrs. Geo. Yoder delightfully entertained three tables at bridge Thursday afternoon at 3:30. Mrs. Albert Abernethy and Mrs. Frank Henderson cut for the first prize, a dainty guest towel. Mrs. Horace Lutz drew the consolation, a bon bon dish. Mrs. P. O. Carpenter of Newton was a guest. Refreshments in two courses were served after the games.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shuford and children motored to Concord Tuesday afternoon for home coming Sept. 8 and 9.

Misses Adelaide Johnston and Kate Elliott were among those who attended the ball game at Gastonia Tuesday afternoon.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By Miss Junie Abernethy)

ELIJAH'S FLIGHT AND RETURN.
Lesson XI, September 12, 1915.
1 Kings XIX.

Golden Text—"Be still, and know that I am God."—Psalm XLVIX

Introductory and Connection.
Elijah was greatly encouraged over the victory at Mount Carmel. This was natural, for his faith was the most important factor in that victory. The overthrow of Baal worshipers did not turn all the people to loyalty toward Jehovah. Wicked Jezebel was determined to thwart the plans of Elijah. In a solemn oath, she shows her attitude toward Elijah. We find him in our lesson for today.

Place.
1. Came to Bersheba. An ancient city of Palestine about 47 miles south of Jerusalem and 90 miles from Jezreel.

2. One day later he went alone in the desert of Paran. While there, he came to Mount Horeb.

Reasons why Elijah was Discouraged.
1. He was physically exhausted.
2. His plans had failed.
3. He was a multitude that had shouted "Jehova is Lord on Mt. Carmel" remained silent before Jezebel's wicked wrath.

4. No one had stood by him in his conflict with idolatry.

Reasons why Elijah Fleed.
1. Because he had to save his life.
2. He was willing to die; but not where his death would be understood as the failure of his religion.
3. He wanted to be alone with God.

The Things we see in His Life.
1. His humanity. (a) Discouragement. (b) Failure.
2. In his human weakness, he did not see the beauty which his own life was to witness.

3. After the assurance of God's love, he felt a compulsion to return to his labors.

4. Out of the clouds of despair, there appeared a star to beckon him on.

Ten Things to Remember.
1. Do not let success exalt us.
2. Always look for the clear sky behind the clouds.
3. Alone with God often brings people to themselves again.
4. Failure is not conquest. Go back and try again.
5. God often speaks to men in the small still voice.
6. God never settles a thing until it is settled right. He does not forget.

7. The world loses all patience with the strong when they are cast down, but God has no word of rebuke for discouraged Elijah.

8. Great crises may prepare the way of God's coming, but we recognize him only in our secret self.

9. God always looks after our needs.

10. What does it mean, here Elijah? Always the question, Are we following him? Are we worth while?

Its popularity is founded on its refreshing deliciousness, due to the fact that it is made with a syrup especially prepared for bottling.

For your own protection, when buying in bottles guard against misleading substitutes. Only the Genuine Bottled Coca-Cola has the name blown in the bottle, as well as imprinted on both the label and the crown top. Look for the name in all three places.
